PUBLIC COMMENT - GENERAL (3 MINUTES EACH)

A resident on the 1600 block of Traver Road spoke in opposition to the Northside STEAM Safe Routes to School project, citing problems with the local process.

Susan Wright, Traver Road resident, spoke in opposition to the Northside STEAM Safe Routes to School project, stating problems with the process and lack of neighbor support of the project.

Jessica Prozinski, Community activist, spoke about Pangea Piercing on 211 E. Liberty and the racist ideology coming out of that establishment. She stated the owner has also made sexist and harassing statements toward clients. She stated the owner closed in August, but he is operating again. She asked for Council support on this issue.

Kate Stenavich, BAMN, spoke about Pangea Piercing Parlor, stating the owner is harassing women and minorities. She asked for Council support.

Tina Carmichael, STEAM PTO President, thanked Council for the discussion regarding the Northside STEAM Safe Routes to School project. She suggested a narrowing of Traver Road to help with the traffic calming issues in that area and also asked if stakeholders could all sit down in the next few weeks to work out issues before the item comes back to Council.

Scott Newell, a resident on Traver Road thanked Council and staff for their work on the Northside STEAM project. He asked that Council consider different approaches to sidewalk gap projects.

Kai Petainen, City resident, urged Councilmember Bannister to continue her lawsuit against the City to determine if the correct process was followed.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM COUNCIL

COUNCILMEMBER GRISWOLD

Councilmember Griswold apologized to Mr. Lazarus, stating her remarks regarding pedestrian safety may have been misunderstood. She stated she has worked on this issue for a long time. She also asked for a crosswalk sign on Earhart Road.

COUNCILMEMBER BANNISTER

Councilmember Bannister stated she is willing to regroup on the Northside discussion. She also stated she would like the Council Rules and Council Administration Committee meetings to include all of Council.

COUNCILMEMBER ACKERMAN

Councilmember Ackerman spoke about the City's new traffic calming project and said many projects that previously did not qualify may now be eligible. He concurred that narrowing Traver Road would result in traffic calming.

COUNCILMEMBER HAYNER

Councilmember Hayner also spoke about the City's traffic calming project. He stated traffic calming should be part of the plan with the Safe Routes to Schools policies. He thanked CTN for filming the Northside Safe Routes to School meeting. Councilmember Hayner also expressed concern about the public notice process for these meetings.

COUNCILMEMBER EATON

Councilmember Eaton stated there will be a Transportation Safety Committee meeting at 1pm at the Ann Arbor Schools Balas Building, 2555 S. State Street on Tuesday, December 4. He stated there is an opportunity for public comment at the meeting.

MAYOR TAYLOR

Mayor Taylor spoke about the City's city seal ordinance and possible ordinance changes will be coming in response to concerns by the ACLU.
