2 City Attorney Transition

City Attorney Stephen Postema to provide information a week to 10 days in advance of May Council Administration Committee meeting for committee members to review regarding transition timelines and options for a search consultant. Planning to be based on May 2022 retirement date. Discussion to be continued at May Council Administration Committee meeting.

3 City Council Meetings in Council Chambers Planning

Discussion. Planning to be continued.

NEW BUSINESS

- 1 Discuss a potential resolution affirming all people have value (Like Vision Zero's goal of no fatalities and serious injuries), no level of disrespect or discrimination is acceptable).

Discussion. Councilmember Griswold to bring forward for future discussion as desired.

- 2 Councilmember Hayner Administrative Matter

Discussion regarding Councilmember Hayner's action of posting a derogatory term posted on Facebook. Motion for Resolution for Councilmember Hayner to be Removed from Council Boards and Commission Appointments, including Council Audit Committee, until December 1, 2021 (or until Resolution for 2022 Council Committee Appointments) and that he attend anti-discrimination and sensitivity training. Vacancies may be filled by members expressing interest to Mayor Pro Tem/Councilmember Grand.

Motion approved 4-1 (Yeas (4): Taylor, Eyer, Grand, and Ramlawi; Nays (1): Griswold).

Request from Councilmember Ramlawi to discuss filing a grievance against Mayor. City Attorney Postema to advise on grievance process. A written complaint can be sent to Chair or Committee via email, as a sworn written complaint is unnecessary and unsafe due COVID-19 pandemic.
