Resolution Accepting North Main Huron River Corridor Vision Taskforce Report
Whereas, On May 21, 2012, City Council created North Main-Huron River Corridor (“Corridor”) Vision Taskforce (“Taskforce”);

Whereas, Council directed the Taskforce to propose a vision which addresses the following aspects of the Corridor:

- Create, complete and enhance pedestrian and bike connection from downtown to Bandmere and Huron River Drive,
- Increase public access to the river-side amenities of existing parks in the Corridor,
- Ease traffic congestion at main and Depot at certain times of a day,
- Recommend the use of potentially available public land at the MichCon property at Broadway,
- The best use of 721 N Main as part of the Allen Creek Greenway trails;

Whereas, The Taskforce delivered its report titled “The North Main Street Huron River Corridor Vision for the Future” to Council on September 3, 2013; and

Whereas, The Taskforce report has short-term and long-term recommendations;

RESOLVED, The Council accepts the Taskforce Report; and

RESOLVED, That the City Administrator review the Taskforce’s recommendations and program them as feasible within the constraints of available resources and other priorities.
