Resolution to Release a 10 x 325-Foot Area of Water Main and Sanitary Sewer Easement at 800 Briarwood Circle (8 Votes Required)

On April 14, 1975, Briarwood, The J. L. Hudson Company, Sears Roebuck and Co., and J. C. Penney granted an easement to the City for water mains and sanitary sewer at 700 Briarwood Circle for the Briarwood Mall, which was recorded at Liber 1525, Pages 506, and 515, Washtenaw County Records. On November 18, 1976, John and Pauline McMullen also granted an easement to the City for water mains in the same area.

Briarwood, LLC is the present owner of 800 Briarwood Circle, which was split from the previous parcel at 700 Briarwood Circle and which contains part of these easements. Briarwood, LLC and has requested this release so that its buildings will comply with approved site plan requirements. The City approved Briarwood, LLC's site plan upon condition of this release.

The easement area to be released does not presently contain any utilities and City staff have determined that the area is not needed now or in the foreseeable future and may be released.

Release of this portion of the easement is recommended.
