Resolution to Approve an Agreement with Miller Canfield Paddock and Stone PLC for Bond and Disclosure Counsel Services, and General Municipal Finance Advice

Attached for your review and approval is a resolution to approve an agreement with Miller Canfield Paddock and Stone, PLC (Miller Canfield) for bond and disclosure counsel services, and general municipal finance advice, through June 30, 2028 (Agreement). The Agreement contains an option to renew for up to two additional five-year periods at the City's sole option.

The City solicited proposals from three law firms to act as the City's bond and disclosure counsel and to provide general municipal finance advice. Such legal services are highly specialized and most cities contract for outside legal counsel to ensure bond issuances and related disclosure are done in accordance with applicable law. The City received three proposals, conducted interviews with counsel from each firm, and determined that Miller Canfield is the best qualified to provide the services required by the City.

Budget/Fiscal Impact: The cost for the bond counsel services are budgeted in and paid from bond proceeds, either at closing or from disbursement of the proceeds, so no budget impact is anticipated. Any other use of Miller Canfield's services for general municipal finance advice services would be subject to availability of funds.
