Resolution to Approve Bylaws of the Ann Arbor Human Rights Commission

The Human Rights Commission has previously operated without bylaws. Following changes to the Human Rights Commission's prescribed duties (amendments to Chapter 112 Non-Discrimination and Chapter 8 of City Code, passed on 9/8/15), the Human Rights Commission has adopted bylaws reflecting those duties and consistent with the City's current bylaws standards. The attached proposed bylaws were approved by the Human Rights Commission at its meeting of June 8, 2016. The bylaws have been reviewed by the City Attorney's Office, consistent with Council Resolution R-08-496.
