Proclamation Honoring Jim Kosteva on His Retirement from U-M

PROCLAMATION

Honoring James A. Kosteva

On the Occasion of his Retirement

June 7, 2018

WHEREAS, James “Jim” Kosteva, Director of Community Relations at the University of Michigan-Office of the Vice President for Government Relations officially retired on May 25, 2018, after twenty-three years of outstanding and meritorious service to the University of Michigan; and

WHEREAS, Jim began his service with the University of Michigan in December of 1994 and as a result of diligent work and demonstrated ability, he successfully facilitated hundreds of interactions between the City of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan on issues and activities of mutual concern such as parking, transportation, off-campus neighborhoods, facility construction, economic development, tourism, public service and safety; and

WHEREAS, Throughout his twenty-three years of service, Jim has also been an integral link between our office at the City of Ann Arbor and the University of Michigan and has seen the City of Ann Arbor through many projects. As such Jim has served as an example to his peers, and the residents of the community and this State, both in his personal and professional achievements, with fairness, humility, persistence and dedication.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Christopher Taylor, Mayor of Ann Arbor, Michigan, do hereby proclaim that we, the City of Ann Arbor, take this opportunity to express our sincere and grateful appreciation, and hereby extend to James “Jim” Kosteva, our congratulations on his well-earned retirement, and our best wishes to him for continued success, happiness, and good health in the years to come.

I hereby set my hand and seal

This 7th day of June, 2018

Christopher Taylor

Mayor of the City of Ann Arbor
